Pathways to the TESOL Endorsement for New Mexico Educators Did you know? Educators who have a TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) can provide English language development services to students who are English learners. This service protects the civil rights of culturally and linguistically diverse students. School districts prefer to hire educators with this important endorsement. K-8 TESOL Endorsement Requirements (Pre-service Educators) 1 TESOL Coursework 24-36 semester hours of TESOL classes 2 La Prueba or a Native American Language Assessment replaces the foreign language requirement Foreign Language Courses 6 hours must be in a foreign language e.g., Spanish, French, etc. Assessment Pass Praxis for ESOL Submit your transcripts to NMPED licensure bureau and fill out the application for your endorsements 6-12 or K-12 Specialty License TESOL Endorsement Requirements Are you going to ▶ yes → teach English Language Arts? New Mexico Public Education Department requires most educators to have an endorsement in English Language Arts to provide English Language Development. no Content Teachers can support English Learners learn academic content (science, social studies, fine arts, etc.) NMSU offers a Master of Arts in and English. But, to provide English Education in Teaching English to Language Development to English Speakers of Other Languages Learners in New Mexico, you must have (TESOL) an English Language Arts endorsement. Master of Arts in Education in TESOL & NMPED Requirements (current educators) TESOL MA in TESOL Endorsement NMSU NMPED 6 hours of foreign language or Curriculum and Instruction Core 01 01 Pass La Prueba or Navajo (15 credits) Proficiency Assessment Up to 12 semester hours of 02 TESOL Core (18 credits) 02 TESOL coursework (need a total of at least 12 hours) TESOL Elective (3 credits) Pass the Praxis for ESOL 03 03 (score of 220 or higher) Submit your transcripts to NMPED licensure bureau and fill out the application for your More info..... yual/TESOL Endo NMPED Language and Culture Division NMPED Licensure Bureau Click here for the interactive presentation